A modern interior space featuring a brick wall, a large illuminated marble wall, and two armchairs. The room has a high ceiling with a recessed light fixture and a hanging lantern. The floor is made of dark grey tiles. The brick wall is on the left and back, while the marble wall is on the right. Two beige armchairs are positioned in front of the brick wall, with a small table between them holding a vase of flowers. A framed abstract painting is on the brick wall. The overall atmosphere is warm and sophisticated.

100 CITY HALL PLAZA BOSTON LANDMARK RENEWED

Built as a commercial row house in 1816, the Sears' Crescent Building is a landmark for the City of Boston. From the Brownstone cornices to the cast iron columns and red bricked facade; Sears' Crescent itself is a cherished cultural heritage accented by tasteful renewals. Its architectural features have been lovingly preserved and restored in all their grandeur, ensuring that this property will remain a sought after destination for the next generation of working Bostonians.
